

LOWBROW GOES ON

DEÁK 17
GYERMEK ÉS IFJÚSÁGI
MŰVÉSZETI GALÉRIA

LOWBROW GOES ON exhibition

What does Lowbrow mean?

Lowbrow is a type of art.

Lowbrow art is often colourful, humorous and sarcastic.

Lowbrow art uses ideas from comics or cheap, flashy objects.

How did Lowbrow art start?

An American magazine introduced new artists.

The magazine is called Juxtapoz.

How did this exhibition start?

The first exhibition was 14 years ago.

The title of the exhibition was: Lowbrow – low art?

Low art means ordinary art.

That exhibition continues in 2026.

What is this exhibition about?

The exhibition welcomes all kinds of art.

The exhibition treats all art the same way.

The exhibition does not say if art is good or bad.

The exhibition shows that all kinds of art can be together in one place.

Curator: Bianka ZSIGÓ

Who are the artists in the exhibition?

The artists draw comics,
design posters,
and draw tattoos.

A tattoo is a picture on the body.
A needle makes this picture.

What are the pictures in the exhibition like?

The pictures show characters,
tell stories,
and use strong colours.

You might know many of the pictures.

The pictures are like comics, tales and advertisements.

Why is this exhibition important?

Many young people see art for the first time on the street.

The exhibition shows these pictures.

The Deák17 Youth Art Gallery has organized exhibitions like this before.

- In 2019: The Street is Not a Playground.
- In 2021: Budapest Street Archæology.

What do you see in the exhibition?

You can see art by Hungarian artists.

The English translation was created by Nóra WÜNSCH-NAGY and a group of Media Specialization students at the Department of Applied English Linguistics, ELTE, Budapest.

Written by Réka Sára TURÓCZI, based on the text by curator Bianka ZSIGÓ.

The easy-to-understand texts were written by Dr. Rita FARKASNÉ GÖNCZI.

The easy-to-understand texts were reviewed by Borbála BERNÁTH and Miklós SZABADOS.

Read more about easy-to-understand communication on this website:

www.konnyenertheto.gonczirita.hu

